

ENGAGE™

WORKS

Next-Gen Hybrid Events

About Engage Works

Our full service creative agency has new offices in London and a base in Dubai, where we combine the best creative with cutting edge technology to realise unique, innovative and bespoke immersive experiences that excite, inspire and engage.

Our experiences are designed to enhance communication and entertainment through interaction and engagement. We create digital spaces for brand experiences, innovation centres, museums, expos, visitor centres, marketing suites and retail environments.

We're also raising the bar on Hybrid Events...

We are specialists

And we have a broad knowledge in designing, producing and delivering world-class hybrid events and experiences.

Our team has come from a wide variety of backgrounds enabling us to pull expertise from many sectors to create an experience for you, like no other.

We produce compelling events that are, engaging, interactive and memorable.

Global Collaboration

Our projects have a reputation for creativity, innovation and engagement, and we now work with some global brands and businesses across a wide range of sectors.

"What the team created, and delivered was enormous. Thanks for helping us not just create something ground-breaking, and collaborative but bring our team together in such a powerful way. The production was incredible, so slick, so committed."

Emily Hill – Director of Events

Connecting audiences

We were asked by Gallagher, a global employee benefits provider, to deliver a remote event to inspire their staff and communicate their new strategy.

The event needed to bring the strategy to life and give staff the opportunity to feedback and get real answers to their questions.

Plan a hybrid event package that works for you...

Option 1 Hybrid

Our base solution using advanced remote video conferencing technology to connect with your attendees.

Option 2 Hybrid ++

Our complete solution using a broad suite of networking + live broadcasting technologies to tailor truly engaging hybrid event experiences.

You want to have a meeting using a video conferencing (VC) solution, and you want to raise the bar. We're able to offer a basic solution that enables us to manage your VC, participants & audience, playing in full-screen video and using digital post-it note interaction, polls & more...

Super accessible: Attendees log on via VC, as they are used to, but can enjoy a completely different experience with new levels of audience engagement and interaction.

FLUX™

INNOVATION LOUNGE

Powered by Engage Works, Flux is a truly unique virtual and physical collaboration space that encourages attendees to think differently, while working in a unique technology-rich environment, curated by our team of creative technologists.

An indispensable environment to take your event to the next level.

A woman in a black dress stands on a small stage, addressing a seated audience in a modern, industrial-style venue. The room features exposed ceiling infrastructure, including pipes and lights. A large screen in the background displays a colorful, abstract graphic. The audience is diverse and attentive. The overall atmosphere is creative and professional.

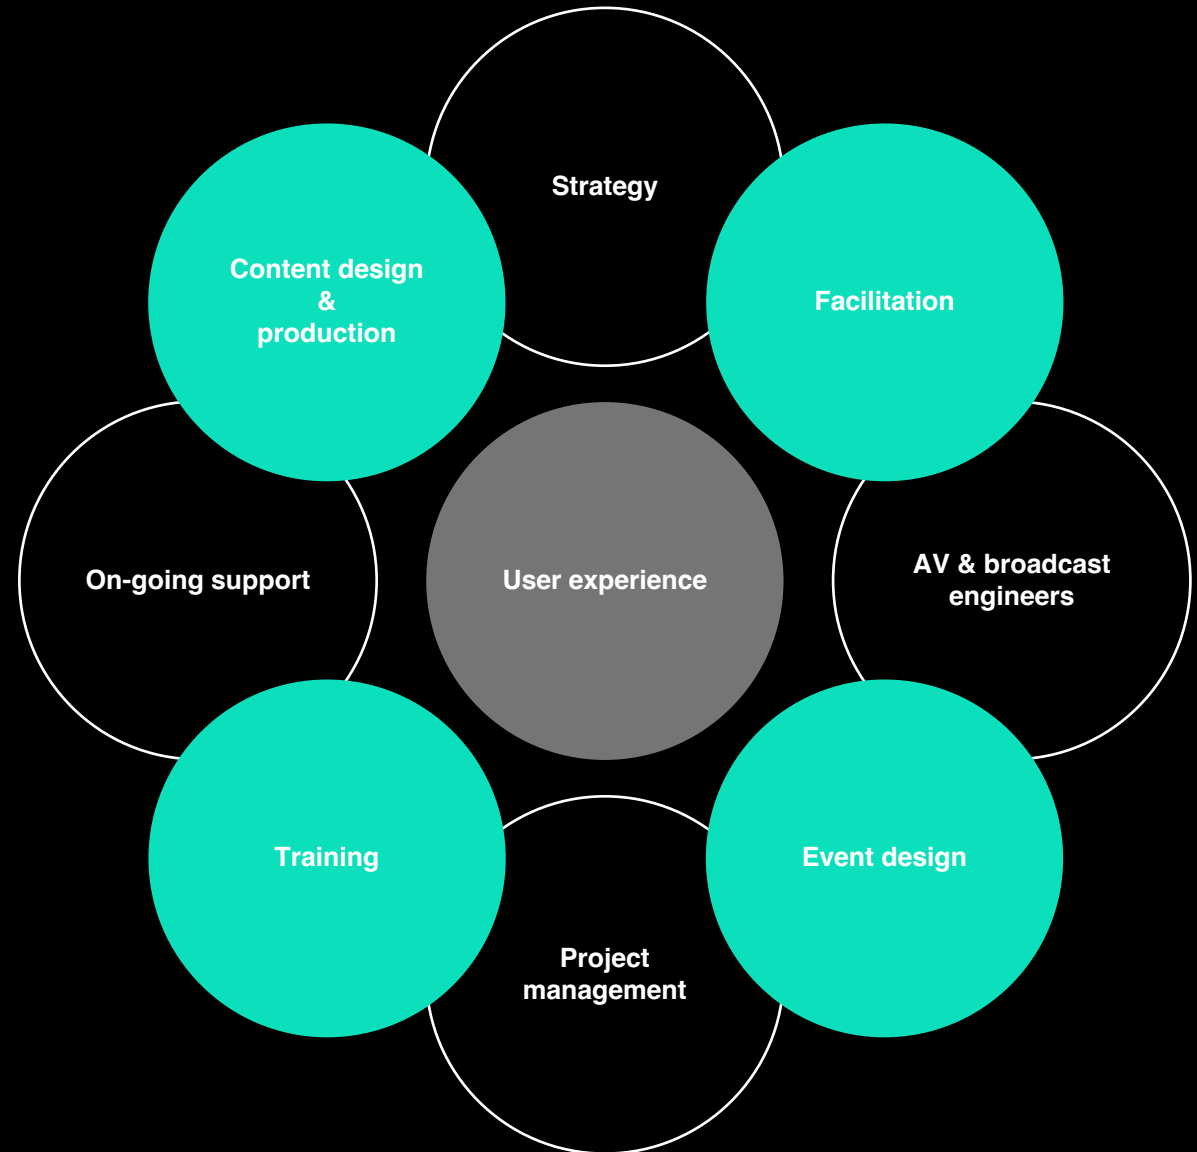

‘A space for ideas, Flux is one of London’s most celebrated creative venues.’

— Time Out Magazine
